Product description

The Rock Shox Pike Ultimate RC2 bicycle shock absorber is made of high-quality materials, making its construction durable and reliable. It is a fork refined in every aspect and designed for MTB, especially for Trail and Enduro. The state-of-the-art and high-tech Charger 2.1 RC2 compression damping insert allows you to adjust the compression at low and high speeds, ensuring that you can adjust the fork's operation to suit your current needs. In addition, it is protected with Maxima Plush fluid, which reduces friction, protecting the shock and ensuring its stable yet quiet operation. The Rock Shox Pike Ultimate RC2 Suspension Fork is a great option for anyone who enjoys riding in tough but rewarding mountain terrain.
