Product description

KMC Chain, being a recognized world leader in bicycle chain manufacturing, perfectly represents excellence, innovation and reliability in the field of bicycle propulsion. Since its founding in 1977 in Taiwan, the company has earned the trust of cyclists around the world, becoming a pioneer in the industry.

Advanced technologies and a relentless pursuit of excellence in chain manufacturing are the foundations on which KMC Chain has built its brand. Utilizing the latest advances in materials science, the company offers products made from high-quality steel, which guarantees not only durability, but also excellent riding performance.

KMC REACT 10-speed 11-42T E-Bike cassette black

The KMC REACT 10-speed is a cassette that takes the cycling experience to a new level. Designed with Shimano HG freewheelers in mind, it guarantees smooth and precise gear shifts on both climbs and descents. Perfectly integrated boosters make derailleurs fast and efficient, eliminating unnecessary delays.

The aesthetics of this product are also noteworthy. The black coating on each sprocket not only gives the cassette a modern look, but also shows the manufacturer's attention to detail. This is not only a riding tool, but also an aesthetic piece that will make any cyclist stand out.

Robust construction from high-quality steel is a guarantee not only of durability, but also of resistance to intense loads. KMC REACT 10-speed is ready to meet the demands of cyclists, both extreme and those who appreciate a comfortable ride.

With compatibility with KMC chains, including popular models such as DLC10, X10SL, X10EL, X10, e10, and Shimano HG chains, this cassette becomes a versatile solution for different user preferences and needs. Whether you're about to tackle challenging mountain trails or enjoy a leisurely ride on your electric bike, the KMC REACT 10-speed is ready for action.

By including it in your drivetrain, you not only gain confidence in its performance, but also a style element that will catch the eye and accentuate the character of your bike. KMC REACT 10-speed - reliability, performance and aesthetics in one.
