Product description

The Smiley 2.0 from ABUS provides little cyclists with everyday, all-around protection. Comical designs, very easy adaptation and ideal ventilation make this bicycle helmet the perfect companion.

Whether your child is still in a child seat, has switched to an exercise bike or is trying out your child's bike for the first time, this simple beginner's helmet with imaginative designs provides reliable protection. With a small visor and deep neck area, the SMILEY 2.0 protects your child's head from all sides. The outer shell is bonded to a shock-absorbing EPS shell using an in-mold process, making it extremely durable yet lightweight.

Features - Smiley 2.0

In-Mold provides a durable, flat connection to the outer shell and shock-absorbing helmet material (EPS)
