Product description

- The ultimate tire lever for demanding tubeless setups
- The Bead Dropper greatly simplifies both removing and installing CushCore inserts — especially the crucial step of pushing the tire bead fully into the rim channel
- Features a rubberized, ergonomic handle for exceptional comfort and grip
- A unique thumb flange allows precise pressure to be applied directly to the tire bead
- Made from a strong, durable composite that’s tough enough for downhill tires yet gentle on rims
- Backed by a lifetime warranty
