Product description

XC and MTB marathons are your element? Maxxis Ardent Race will help you use your full potential and motivate you to fight for higher and higher goals. This MTB tire is ideal for technically challenging XC trails, as well as long MTB marathons. With its mid-height blocks, the Ardent Race bridges the gap between the fast XC tire Maxxis Ikon and the more trail-oriented Maxxis Ardent. The sloping center blocks reduce rolling resistance, while the vertical walls of the side blocks will let you "bite into" every corner. Want to get up to speed? Put on the Ardent Race and feel the difference not only on the race, but also on the trails.

Product features:

- Manufacturer: Maxxis
- Model: Ardent Race
- Type: rolling tire
- Size: 29x2.35
- ETRTO: 60-622
- Weight: 775g
- Tubeless Ready tire
- Great for XC activities
- Low rolling resistance increases riding comfort
- EXO Protection technology significantly increases the tire's resistance to punctures and tears
- 120 TPI

Tubeless tires (TUBELESS) have many advantages over classic tires:

- the possibility to drive with lower pressure, which improves the tire's hold in corners
- lower rolling resistance compared to tires with an inner tube
- less risk of catching a "flat" (no inner tube)
